

K-Love radio has been a positive influence in our community and has been well received as an alternative wholesome station to some of the more questionable stations we often are subjected too. The replacement with LPFM would force our valued station to go off the air. Displacing this FM station in our community would underscore the positive results we have seen. I support the need for the existing FM service K-Love presently is using.
Thank you for your time and consideration. Max Quintana